

IT'S ABOUT EUROPE IT'S ABOUT YOU Let's talk

CITIZENS' DIALOGUE WITH DOMBROVSKIS & VESTAGER about some big issues: economy, growth and competition in EU

Invitation

Here comes your unique opportunity to engage in direct dialogue with Vice-President Valdis Dombrovskis and Commissioner for Competition Margrethe Vestager. Simply attend the Citizens' Dialogue on 3 February at The Black Diamond, Copenhagen

Meet two of the heavyweights from the European Commission when Valdis Dombrovskis, Vice-President for the Euro and in charge of financial stability, and Margrethe Vestager, European Commissioner for Competition, take part in a Citizens' Dialogue in Copenhagen - free and open to all.

Become involved

The big issues of the EU are on the agenda; both Dombrovskis and Vestager will address their key topics. You can seize the opportunity to ask questions about whatever EU-matter is on your mind. Why not join in and ask what the EU does to promote growth in the EU? How is the Euro doing these days? What proceedings are currently running to achieve fair market competition? You may also be curious about the latest developments of the competition policy of the EU, about the fight against tax havens or the Fehmarnbelt Fixed Link. If you have questions about the influx of refugees, border control, energy and climate policy, Denmark's relation to Europol, the farewell of Great Britain to the EU or any other EU-related topic, then simply register and get ready for discussion. Do not miss out on this exciting morning event - it will surely provide food for thought.

Nynne Bjerre Christensen, journalist and anchor of the news programme Deadline at DR (Danish Broadcasting Corporation), is moderator and keeps the debate on track with Latvian Dombrovskis and Danish Vestager. The event is in English, but questions can be asked in Danish.

Networking, drinks and finger foods

After the Citizens' Dialogue you are most welcome to stay for a networking opportunity with fellow citizens and EU staff while enjoying beverages and delicious finger food. Register today - we look forward to seeing you.
