

IT'S ABOUT EUROPE IT'S ABOUT YOU Let's talk

CITIZENS' DIALOGUE ABOUT THE LABOUR MARKET: WELFARE AND BALANCE What would you like to ask European Commissioner Thyssen?

Invitation

This is your unique opportunity to engage in direct dialogue with European Commissioner Marianne Thyssen. All you have to do is attend the Citizens' Dialogue on 9 February at The Worker's Museum in Copenhagen

Meet Commissioner for Employment and Social Affairs, Marianne Thyssen, when she takes part in a Citizens' Dialogue in Copenhagen – free and open to all. Commissioner Thyssen will focus on the social aspects of the labour market, jobs, inclusion and welfare. In short, subjects that are both highly relevant for the individual citizen and essential for the way in which we organise our society.

Get involved

At the Citizens' Dialogue you can seize the opportunity to ask Commissioner Marianne Thyssen questions about any EU matter on your mind.

Why not join in and ask what the EU does to create more jobs in Europe? Whether the EU does anything to fight poverty and youth unemployment? What we can do to improve health and safety at work? Do the elderly still have a place in the labour market? How widespread is welfare tourism – and why do we have to share Danish welfare with others, in the first place?

How about training and developing new skills? And will Denmark be able to uphold the so-called Danish Model? Do not miss out on this exciting morning – it will surely provide food for thought.

In English or Danish

Nynne Bjerre Christensen, journalist and host of DR2-programme Deadline, is moderator and provides for a vivid debate with Belgian Commissioner Marianne Thyssen. The event is in English, but you will be able to ask your questions and receive the Commissioner's replies in Danish, as an interpreter will be present.

Nibbles and networking

After the dialogue, you are welcome to stay for a networking opportunity with fellow visitors and EU staff while enjoying beverages and delicious finger food. Register today – we look forward to seeing you!
